

Society and Faith Homework Overview Term 3.2

The table below outlines some of the possible homework tasks that students may be asked to complete during this half term

Year group	Topics Students will be learning	Description of homework tasks
7	An introduction to Islam The Five Pillars of Islam: Shahadah, Salah, Zakat, Sawm, Hajj. The effects of each of the Pillars on Muslim life.	Each student will be provided with all of this half term’s homework tasks at the start of the half term. They need to complete at least three of the five tasks as dictated by their teacher. Tasks include internet research, mind mapping, creating key word glossaries, creating wordless/videos/sound recordings/fact files.
8	What are people worth? Prejudice and discrimination Human rights Inequal rights The right to education Hate crime Amnesty International Christian Aid	Each student will be provided with all of this half term’s homework tasks at the start of the half term. They need to complete at least three of the five tasks as dictated by their teacher. Tasks include internet research, mind mapping, creating key word glossaries, creating wordless/videos/sound recordings/fact files.
10 New	Religion and Ethics: Matters of life and death Sanctity of life Abortion Euthanasia Life after death Gender discrimination Roles of men and women in the UK and the Church	At least one practice question per week, based on content covered in lessons.
10	Religion and Life Issues: Is it fair? Human dignity Equality Wealth and charity Social responsibility	At least two practice questions per week, based around current content and areas of weakness identified in RAG of key content.

	The media Prejudice Injustice

Homework Key Points

Each class has an homework timetable. This is specifically designed so that students receive a manageable amount of homework throughout the week. All homework should be recorded into the student planners, please encourage your child to complete this. All homework timetables can be found on the school website (add link here). Please contact the school if you have any questions regarding homework