Year 10	TOPIC	Our World	Our World	Our World	Mock exam project.	Mock Exam project.
	Knowledge	Verbal and visual exploration into the project theme via drawing, painting, photographic explorations and verbal annotations. Pupils will be completing challenging observations from primary, secondary and tertiary sources to fully explore their project title.	Complete artists analysis into relevant artists to support the development of the project/theme. Pupils will develop a contextual understanding of historical and modern artists practices that will inform their development further. Students will visually and verbally analyse the work of others. Explorations of relevant materials and media to develop ideas.	Combining their visual observations with contextual students, students will begin to refine and develop their own ideas, Further explorations into relevant technical processes will be encouraged - including, but not limited to painting, drawing, mixed media. Understand how to use preparatory work to inform development of a final idea.	Mock exam project - students will select their own theme and begin visual explorations towards their chosen theme. The intention of this mini 'mock' project is to challenge students to combine and create using previous knowledge of all AOs. Although independent, students will be support to ensure they are aware of exam expectations, and key timings.	Students will refine and develop their ideas in order to create a final response to their theme. Students will produce all summative pieces for their portfolio.
